As in-house counsel, you have a variety of ethical obligations, including those under the Rules of Professional Conduct. What are the key ethical rules that in-house counsel need to be aware of? How do you ensure you are in compliance? What should you do when you observe ethical violations or contraventions of the Rules?

Attend this program, especially designed for in-house counsel, to learn how to handle difficult ethical and practice issues, including:

- Dealing with whistleblower and disclosure issues
- Addressing high-level misconduct
- Complying with the Rules concerning civility
- What are your “reporting up” obligations?
- Avoiding and managing conflicts of interest
- Handling requests for personal legal services

Register now to gain expert advice! We look forward to seeing you at the program.

Speakers:

W.A. Derry Millar, Partner, WeirFoulds LLP (former Treasurer, Law Society of Upper Canada)

Brian Wylynko, Managing Director – Legal, Regional Counsel and Corporate Secretary, FedEx Express Canada

With special remarks from Stephen Rotstein, VP, Policy & Enforcement & General Counsel, Financial Planning Standards Council, President, CCCA Ontario Chapter.
