

WeirFoulds welcomes four new associates

September 19, 2018

WeirFoulds is pleased to announce that four new associates have joined our team of lawyers this month after summering and articling at the firm. We are excited to welcome back Shalome Barrow, Kelsey Gordon, Mike McDonald and Kartiga Thavaraj. Please find below for review a brief background on each of our new associates:

- Shalome Barrow graduated from Queen's University, with her Juris Doctor, 2017. She is a part of the Litigation & Dispute Resolution Group.
- Kelsey Gordon graduated from the University of Toronto, with her Juris Doctor, 2017. She works on a variety of complex litigation matters in a range of subject areas, including contract, commercial, commercial leasing, corporate, employment and labour, and University matters.
- Mike McDonald graduated from the University of Ottawa, with his Juris Doctor, 2017. He is an associate in the Securities Group.
- Kartiga Thavaraj graduated from the University of Toronto, with her Juris Doctor, 2017. She is a litigation associate with a focus on construction and constitutional law.

We are excited to welcome back all four associates to our growing team of lawyers who are committed to providing the highest level of service to our clients.
