

WeirFoulds partners listed in the Lexpert Special Edition – Litigation

December 3, 2018

WeirFoulds is pleased to announce that Bryan Finlay QC, Derry Millar, Greg Richards and Frank Walwyn are recognized in the 2018 Lexpert® Special Edition – Canada's Leading Litigation Lawyers.

Bryan Finlay is recognized as one of Canada's top litigation lawyers. Throughout his career he has been engaged in some of the most complex commercial, constitutional, tort and public law issues.

Derry Millar is a former Treasurer and life Bencher of the Law Society of Upper Canada. His practice covers a diverse range of areas, including corporate commercial, products liability, intellectual property and class action.

Greg Richards has litigated significant cases in a broad range of fields, appearing before the Supreme Court of Canada, the Federal Court of Canada, the Court of Appeal for Ontario, the Superior Court of Justice and the Tax Court of Canada, as well as a variety of regulatory tribunals.

Frank Walwyn's highly successful corporate and commercial litigation practice extends beyond Canadian borders to the Caribbean. He is consulted and appears as counsel on complex multi-jurisdictional litigation matters, many of which have led to important or precedent-setting judgments.

The Lexpert® Special Edition – Litigation is the product of an extensive peer survey process and profiles Lexpert-ranked lawyers who provide services in several areas of business-related litigation.

The Special Edition has been published in the December edition of the Report on Business magazine in The Globe & Mail and can be viewed online here.
