

WeirFoulds Proud to Sponsor The Construction Institute of Canada's 2016 National Student Bid Competition Awards Gala

April 12, 2016

WeirFoulds is proud to sponsor and support The Construction Institute of Canada's 2016 National Student Bid Competition Awards Gala. The Simulated Student Bid Competition is an annual event held to assist students to understand the real life challenges that are present within the construction bidding and estimating process. The competition is for students across Canada.

Winners are presented with monetary awards and plaques. Contestants who submit bids are awarded with certificates for participating in the competition.

This event is another example of WeirFoulds' commitment to developing and promoting professionalism and excellence in the management of the construction process, working with The Construction Institute of Canada.
