

Five WeirFoulds Partners Listed as Leading Infrastructure Lawyers in 2016 Lexpert® Special Edition – Infrastructure

August 29, 2016

WeirFoulds is pleased to announce that the firm has once again been listed in the Lexpert® Special Edition – Infrastructure. The five partners listed in this special edition affirm our position as industry leaders in the field of infrastructure and public-private partnerships.

Congratulations to:

- Glenn W. Ackerley – Construction Law
- Lisa A. Borsook – Property Leasing
- Barnet H. Kussner – Property Development
- Bradley N. McLellan – Property Development
- Christopher J. Tzekas – Property Development

The Infrastructure Practice Group at WeirFoulds has an extensive history of supporting major infrastructure projects in Ontario. We partner with our clients using cross-disciplinary skills, including land use planning, expropriation, construction, leasing, commercial law, environmental law and project finance to advance such projects through to their successful conclusion.

The Lexpert® Special Edition – Infrastructure is the product of an extensive peer survey process. Produced in strategic partnership with the Canadian Council for Public-Private Partnerships (CCPPP), the Lexpert Special Edition on Canada's Leading Infrastructure Lawyers has been published in the September issue of Report on Business magazine in The Globe & Mail.

We congratulate each of our listed partners on their accomplishments in their respective areas of infrastructure.
