

Webinar: Exclusion of Liability Clauses

October 30, 2019

By Michael Statham

In this webinar, Michael Statham and Caitlin Steven discuss the enforceability of exclusion of liability clauses. An exclusion clause is a provision in a commercial contract intended to exclude or cap the liability of a party for certain damages. The webinar covers topics including whether the clause applies to the circumstances, whether the clause is unconscionable, and whether the clause is consistent with an overriding public policy.
