

Two weeks for those in need: WeirFoulds proudly hosts 2019 United Way fundraising campaign

November 11, 2019

On Friday, November 8, 2019, WeirFoulds wrapped up its annual two-week fundraising campaign in support of the United Way Greater Toronto. The firm's United Way committee organized and executed a variety of fundraising activities including trivia, bingo, a bake sale, a video game tournament and the third annual "WeirFoulds Got Talent" talent show. Additionally, a group of our associates and articling students braved the 1,776 stairs in the CN Tower stair climb on November 3 as part of the campaign.

The firm is proud to support the United Way because of the targeted work the organization does across Canada. United Way puts donations to work where they get the greatest results in an effort to create lasting change in local communities from coast to coast. Its initiatives aide in the building of stronger and healthier communities.

We thank our United Way committee for helping to organize another highly successful fundraising campaign, and congratulate the organization on the excellent work it has done and continues to do to help those in need in Toronto and across Canada.
