

WeirFoulds partners recognized as leading mining lawyers in Lexpert 2020 special edition

March 2, 2020

WeirFoulds is pleased to announce that partners Rob Eberschlag and David Knight have been listed in the Lexpert Special Edition: Mining 2020.

Rob is a well-regarded corporate and securities lawyer who regularly advises clients in the mining sector. He has been involved in the establishment of many natural resource investment funds, including a number of significant international mandates. Rob also has extensive experience handling mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, divestitures, corporate governance and compliance matters.

David is widely recognized for his more than 30 years of experience as a securities lawyer. David represents mining clients on property acquisition and development, including option and joint venture agreements, and has extensive experience in flow-through financing. He works with his mining sector clients from the early days of mineral exploration activity through to project development, finance, production and marketing.

The Lexpert Special Edition: Mining profiles Lexpert-ranked lawyers who provide services to the mining sector. It is distributed through The Globe & Mail and can be viewed online here.

Rob can be reached at 416.947.5076 or reberschlag@weirfoulds.com.

David can be reached at 416.947.5095 or dknight@weirfoulds.com.
