

Krista Chaytor, Michael Swartz and Brian Kuchar discuss the current challenge for Ontario's contractors in the OGCA's The Generals magazine

October 27, 2020

In their recent article, "Resolving Construction Disputes in a COVID World" Krista Chaytor, Michael Swartz and Brian Kuchar discuss the current challenge for Ontario's contractors in reconciling the predictability of construction disputes with the unpredictability created by COVID-19. The article highlights the new area of potential conflict as parties attempt to meet the commercial demands of their projects while implementing appropriate safeguards to protect the health of their workers.

They offer information and helpful tips for contractors to prepare for the conflicts and protect their legal interests while bringing their projects to successful competition.
