

WeirFoulds welcomes new construction law associate

September 14, 2021

WeirFoulds is pleased to welcome Janice Philteos to the firm in its Construction Law Practice Group.

Janice completed her articling term at the firm where she gained experience assisting with the representation of owners, developers, contractors, subcontractors, design professionals, and project managers in disputes. Janice's practice encompasses a variety of issues within the construction industry including liens, negligence, breach of contract, and delay claims.

We are proud to continue to support our clients with top resources and are thrilled to have Janice join our team of highly skilled associates.

Welcome, Janice!
