

WeirFoulds represents StageZero Life Sciences Ltd in its acquisition of the Health Clinics Business

September 16, 2021

On September 2, 2021, StageZero Life Sciences Ltd (“StageZero”) (TSX:SZLS) announced that it has completed its previously announced acquisition of the business of Health Clinics Limited (“Health Clinics”) through the acquisition of all of the shares of Clinics Operations Limited, a provider of specialist clinical services across Europe and North America, and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Health Clinics, and the acquisition of substantially all of the assets of Health Clinics USA, Corp., a company in which Health Clinics holds significant ownership interest.

StageZero is a healthcare company working to reduce the risk of cancer and other chronic diseases through early detection and intervention. “This acquisition is a transformational milestone in the history of StageZero Life Sciences,” said StageZero Chairman & CEO James Howard-Tripp. “The combination of StageZero and Health Clinics has created a one-of-a-kind, vertically-integrated healthcare company offering an advanced telemedicine platform and a broad physician network to provide continuity of care for any patient, anywhere.”

StageZero was represented by WeirFoulds with a team consisting of Ryan Filson and Elliott Cheeseman (corporate), Rob Eberschlag and Aashima Singh (securities), among others. To complete the transaction WeirFoulds coordinated with representatives of UK law firm BPE and US law firm Troutman Pepper Hamilton Sanders LLP.

WeirFoulds is pleased to have assisted StageZero in the acquisition. Click here for the official announcement.
