

Toronto Construction Association presents 'Best of the Best' awards

February 9, 2012

The Toronto Construction Association (TCA) has saluted outstanding achievements by both member companies and individuals in its 14th annual "Best of the Best" Awards.

The association, which represents close to 2,200 companies, presented 2011 project achievement awards in three categories. It also honoured firms that best demonstrate a green building culture. Outstanding safety performance was recognized as well.

"These awards are part of a concerted effort by TCA to recognize the outstanding builders in our community and our industry," said retiring TCA chair Glenn Ackerley, a partner in WeirFoulds.
