

Troubles, Tricks and Tragedies: Financial Abuse of Powers of Attorney

March 21, 2014

It is difficult to believe that siblings or trusted friends could abuse a position of trust and confidence. You might discover that your parents' foreign property has been transferred to one of your siblings, or that a very generous transfer of funds has been put in a sibling's name. It could also be as simple as a family member using your parents' bank account like an ATM or making sporadic transfers here and there.
