

WeirFoulds – Ontario Law Firm of the Year 2022

May 20, 2022

WeirFoulds is pleased to announce that the firm has been recognized as "Ontario Law Firm of the Year" by the Canadian Law Awards. The in-person Awards Gala took place on May 19, 2022 at the Arcadian Court in Toronto. This is the second time that WeirFoulds has been recognized with this award, previously receiving the honour in 2020.

The candidates for this award all have offices in Ontario and offer a wide range of legal services to clients in the province and throughout Canada. These firms were considered based on the quality, qualifications, importance and innovativeness of legal work performed by their lawyers throughout the 2021 calendar year.

"We are incredibly honoured to receive this prestigious award, particularly as we emerge from the last two years. The loyalty, skill and determination as our people continued to serve our clients throughout the pandemic and the switch to working entirely remotely has been unprecedented," said Wayne Egan, Managing Partner. "Thank you to our clients, peers and partners for taking the time to express their appreciation for the quality of legal services we provide. It's a privilege to continue work with all of them."

Congratulations to all the finalists and award recipients!
