

WeirFoulds welcomes Lia Boritz as a Partner in its Litigation & Dispute Resolution Practice Group

June 20, 2022

WeirFoulds LLP is pleased to announce that Lia Boritz has rejoined WeirFoulds as a partner in its Litigation & Dispute Resolution Law Practice Group effective June 1, 2022. As the newest addition to the partnership, Lia brings extensive experience in representing clients ranging from corporations and public institutions to small businesses and individuals at all levels of court in Ontario.

Lia began her legal career at WeirFoulds as a Summer Student in 2014, returning as a Student at Law in 2015 and eventually joining the firm fulltime as a Litigation Associate. In 2021 she moved to a Toronto-based law firm as a Senior Associate. She has also been recognized in Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch in the area of Corporate and Commercial Litigation.

"We are thrilled to welcome Lia back to our Litigation & Dispute Resolution practice group as a Partner. She is an incredibly accomplished and talented lawyer, and her expertise in complex property and real estate disputes, contract disputes, fraud cases, municipal law and more will be an invaluable asset to our clients," said Ken Prehogan, Counsel and Chair of WeirFoulds' Litigation & Dispute Resolution Law Practice Group.

Lia can be reached at lboritz@weirfoulds.com or 416.947.5067.
