

Two WeirFoulds lawyers recognized in 2022 Mining and Energy Lexpert Special Editions

October 5, 2022

WeirFoulds is pleased to announce that partners Robert Eberschlag and Janet Bobechko have been recognized in the Lexpert Special Edition: Mining and Lexpert Special Edition: Energy respectively.

Robert is a highly regarded lawyer whose practice focuses on corporate, commercial and securities law. He has also been involved in the establishment of a number of natural resources investment funds. His sector experience includes transactions involving mining, life sciences, blockchain, renewable energy, cleantech, impact investing, oil/gas and innovation clients, including a number of significant international mandates.

Janet is a nationally recognized senior practitioner and a Certified Specialist in Environmental Law, with extensive experience in all aspects of environmental law, climate change, sustainability, and Environmental Social Governance (ESG). She routinely provides sophisticated and strategic advice on environmental compliance, mergers & acquisitions, real estate and portfolio acquisitions and dispositions, leasing, financings, and environmental management systems. Janet was recently recognized in the 2023 edition of Chambers Canada: Canada's Leading Lawyers as a leading practitioner in Environmental law throughout Canada.

Both Special Editions were published as a two-in-one double issue in the October 5, 2022 issue of The Globe & Mail and can be viewed online here.
