

“Canada” in Global Legal Insights – Litigation & Dispute Resolution 3rd Ed.

August 20, 2014

By Caroline Abela, Krista Chaytor,

Efficiency and integrity of the Canadian courts

The cornerstone of the Canadian legal system is based on two principles: (1) the rule of law; and (2) the independence of the judiciary. The rule of law provides that everyone is subject to the law and no one is above the law. The preservation of such a principle is ensured by the independence of the judiciary, which dates back 300 years.
