

WeirFoulds Partner Lucinda Main invited as an International Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel

October 9, 2024

WeirFoulds is pleased to announce that Partner Lucinda Main has been invited by the Board of Regents of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC) to join as an International Fellow.

ACTEC is an organization of trust and estate lawyers and law professors who have been elected by their peers in recognition of having made outstanding contributions to the practice of trust and estate law. ACTEC brings together top lawyers in the profession to maintain a high quality of trust and estate legal services through mutual education; to create and foster networking among those lawyers based on the highest order of trust and confidence; and to contribute to the improvement of the areas of law in which trust and estate lawyers practice.

Lucy is Co-Chair of the Wills, Trusts and Estates Practice Group at WeirFoulds, and maintains a practice that focuses exclusively on estate and trust planning and administration. Advising Canadian and international clients on a wide range of estate and trust matters, Lucy drafts estate planning documents, establishes private charitable foundations, guides beneficiaries of estates and facilitates the administration of estates and trusts.

"Lucy's dedication to the field of estates and trusts law is truly exceptional," said Clare Burns, who Co-Chairs the Wills, Trusts and Estates Practice Group alongside Lucy. "Being named a Fellow of ACTEC is a well-deserved honour, and it speaks to her unwavering professionalism and leadership in this complex and important area of law. We couldn't be prouder to see Lucy recognized for her remarkable contributions to the profession."
