

Three WeirFoulds partners and the Caribbean group recognized in Chambers Global Guide 2025

February 13, 2025

WeirFoulds is pleased to announce that the firm has been recognized by Chambers and Partners in Chambers Global Guide 2025. In this year's edition, three of our partners have been recognized as leaders in their respective fields. We congratulate:

Janet Bobechko – Environment (Canada)

- Janet is a Certified Specialist in Environmental Law and a nationally recognized senior practitioner with extensive experience in all aspects of environmental law, climate change and sustainability, including supply chain transparency. Janet's environmental law practice is focused on climate change and sustainability, Environment Social Governance (ESG), real estate and brownfield development and environmental dispute resolution. Janet is recognized in Band 3 of this category.

James Kosa – Information Technology (Canada)

- James maintains a practice focused on information technology and intellectual property law. James offers his clients a wealth of knowledge and experience from across the spectrum of technology issues, including the protection and exploitation of computer and software technology, IT and IP licensing, privacy, security breaches and dispute resolution. James is recognized in Band 3 of this category.

Frank Walwyn – Dispute Resolution (Caribbean-wide)

- Frank is an accomplished litigator with a proven track record of success in high-stakes, multi-jurisdictional business disputes. Called to the Bar of Ontario and ten jurisdictions in the Caribbean, Frank maintains an active trial and appellate practice in Canada and across the Caribbean. Many of the cases in which Frank has been involved have led to precedent-setting judgments, including decisions in the areas of venue selection, procedural rights for appeals to the Privy Council, constitutional rights and freedoms, and the court's jurisdiction to grant relief involving foreign elements. Frank is recognized in the Spotlight Table of this category.

Additionally, WeirFoulds is recognized as a leading firm in the following category:

- Dispute Resolution (Caribbean-wide): WeirFoulds is recognized in the Spotlight Table in this category across the Caribbean. Led by Kayla Theeuwen, WeirFoulds' Caribbean & Offshore Practice Group is renowned across the Region for its expertise in navigating complex and high-stakes business disputes. With a deep understanding of the unique legal landscape in the Caribbean, the team is committed to providing strategic, practical and results-driven solutions for its clients.

Chambers Global is an annual publication that ranks the top lawyers and law firms in over 200 jurisdictions across the world. Rankings are based on research and analysis of the legal market undertaken by Chambers.

We thank our clients, colleagues and peers, and look forward to continuing our efforts to better serve our clients in Ontario, across Canada and around the world.
