

WeirFoulds Partner Frank Walwyn featured by Law Times in career spotlight

December 22, 2025

Partner Frank Walwyn was recently featured by Law Times in a career spotlight written by Zena Olijnyk on December 17, 2025.

Titled “WeirFoulds lawyer Frank Walwyn: still at the top, still grounded”, the article provides an overview of Frank’s early life and exceptional career at the highest levels of the legal profession in Canada, his approach to excellence in advocacy, and his role as a leader within both the firm and the broader legal community.

Frank joined WeirFoulds as an articling student after graduating from law school. Over the past 30 years, he has built a career at the firm as one of the country’s most esteemed litigators. In looking back on his early career, Frank noted that WeirFoulds instilled a commitment to pursuing excellence through the standard set by the firm’s senior lawyers, stating that “You weren’t pushed by someone telling you to be better. You were pushed by trying to keep up.”
