

WeirFoulds Chair Denise Baker Recognized by Law Times and Canadian Lawyer in Leadership Spotlights

January 20, 2026

Denise Baker, Chair of WeirFoulds LLP, is the subject of recent spotlight features by Law Times and Canadian Lawyer, with both publications offering an in-depth look at her leadership journey and approach to firm governance.

The features focus on Denise's professional evolution, leadership philosophy, and the experiences that have shaped her perspective as Chair. Through personal reflection and industry context, the profiles explore what thoughtful, steady leadership looks like in today's legal profession.

In Law Times, Denise discusses the responsibility that comes with chairing a firm with deep institutional history, emphasizing continuity, collaboration, and the importance of listening. The article highlights her belief that leadership is less about ceremony and more about stewardship.

Canadian Lawyer's profile similarly traces Denise's path from long-standing partner to Chair, examining the moments and mentors that influenced her development. The piece reflects on her readiness for the role and the value of leadership grounded in experience, credibility, and trust.

Together, the spotlights present a nuanced portrait of a leader focused on guiding a firm forward while remaining anchored in its values.
