

WeirFoulds Partner David R. Wingfield Joins Fountain Court Chambers, London, England

December 8, 2010

WeirFoulds LLP would like to announce that Partner David R. Wingfield has joined Fountain Court Chambers, the leading London commercial chambers, as a Door Tenant (an associate member).

Fountain Court is a long established and substantial set of commercial barristers' chambers, based in the Temple, London, England. They are recognised as leaders in the field of commercial disputes and offer expertise in a wide range of practice areas.

"Fountain Court are particularly good on big-ticket work, tending towards quality rather than volume work." Chambers & Partners (2011, UK guide)

David Wingfield is recognised as a leading litigation lawyer. Known for his skilful and creative representation—especially in respect of disputes with no obvious solution—David acts on some of the largest and most important litigation matters in Canada and as counsel or supervising counsel on significant international litigation.

We congratulate David on this honour and for his continuing contributions to excellence within the legal community.
