

WeirFoulds welcomes Associate Nailah Ramsoomair to the firm

May 7, 2026

WeirFoulds is pleased to welcome Nailah Ramsoomair to the firm as an Associate in the Construction Practice Group. Nailah's practice is focused on construction law, providing strategic guidance and practical solutions to clients engaged in complex construction projects. She represents a range of parties involved in construction disputes, including, contractors, subcontractors, owners, and developers at all stages of the litigation process.

Before joining WeirFoulds, Nailah practised at both a national firm and a leading litigation boutique where she gained valuable experience in complex litigation, arbitrations, and adjudications, with a focus on construction, real property, and commercial disputes. We are excited to welcome Nailah to our growing team of lawyers!
