

Lisa Borsook named to the Women's Executive Network's (WXN) Top 100 Hall of Fame

November 23, 2016

WeirFoulds LLP is pleased to announce that Lisa Borsook, Executive Partner has been inducted into the Women's Executive Network's (WXN) Top 100 Hall of Fame. Lisa receives this prestigious honour as a multi-time winner of the WXN Canada's Most Powerful Women: Top 100 Award.

2016 marks the third consecutive year in which Lisa has been recognized in the RBC Champions Category. In 2013, Lisa received WXN award in the KPMG Professionals category.

Lisa's exceptional skills as an accomplished lawyer, a committed role model, and a dedicated contributor to her community have benefited our firm and her clients. A leading authority in property development, commercial leasing and infrastructure, Lisa represents local, national and international clients.

Lisa is recognized as a dedicated mentor, role model and agent of change to advance women in the Canadian workplace. Lisa has used her unique position as one of Canada's first female law-firm managing partners to promote the advancement of women lawyers. She is also passionate about women serving on boards, and about diversity initiatives within the legal profession and Canadian business world. In addition, Lisa has long-standing commitments to and involvement in a number of charities, including the Women's Brain Health Initiative, where she has served on the board since 2012.

We congratulate Lisa on this tremendous accomplishment, and thank her for her commitment to the profession.

About the WXN Canada's Most Powerful Women: Top 100 Awards

When the Canada's Most Powerful Women: Top 100 Awards was launched in 2003, we wanted to shine a spotlight on the incredible accomplishments of professional women across Canada in a way that would both recognize talented leaders and inspire others—the next generation, their peers and themselves—to push the boundaries of what's possible even further. Since then, WXN has celebrated the accomplishments of 939 remarkable women through the Awards. Each year, we are proud to host four Top 100 Celebrations across the country in Toronto, Vancouver, Calgary and Montreal. Each Top 100 Regional Celebration is comprised of two events: a Leadership Summit and Awards.

More information about the awards is available at the WXN site.
