

WeirFoulds Recognized as a Proud Supporter of the Progress Place Transitional Employment Program

March 3, 2017

WeirFoulds was honoured by Progress Place for our Leadership as an Employment Partner at their first annual Taking Care of Business Breakfast. WeirFoulds is a proud supporter of Progress Place and has been a part of the Transitional Employment Program for several years.

Progress Place is a recovery centre for people living with mental illness that is committed to helping people stay out of hospitals and contribute to the communities they live in through a comprehensive network of services that includes employment, education, recreation, and housing. The Transitional Employment Program allows for a smooth transition into the workforce giving individuals with mental illness a positive environment to build their skill sets.

Please visit www.progressplace.org for additional information about Progress Place and the services that are offered.
