

Marie-Andrée Vermette contributes an article on access to justice in French for Advocacy Matters

July 12, 2017

WeirFoulds litigation partner Marie-Andrée Vermette is a contributor to the July 2017 edition of Advocacy Matters, one of the newsletters produced by The Advocates' Society.

In Voulez-vous...Legal Services in French?, Marie-Andrée discusses the right to require a bilingual proceeding in Ontario, and the professional obligations of lawyers with respect to advising clients of their language rights.
