

Rob Eberschlag, Corporate, Commercial and Securities Lawyer, Joins WeirFoulds

April 10, 2018

WeirFoulds is pleased to announce that Rob Eberschlag has joined the firm as a partner in the Corporate and Securities Groups.

Rob is recognized for his more than 18 years of experience strategically advising clients on corporate finance, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, divestitures, investment funds and corporate governance and compliance matters.

"We are thrilled to add Rob to our well established Corporate and Securities practices," said Wayne Egan, Managing Partner, WeirFoulds, "The addition of Rob to the WeirFoulds team allows us to further expand our robust services to our clients."

Rob advises issuers, investment banks and institutional investors in connection with public and private offerings, reverse takeovers, qualifying transactions and corporate governance and compliance matters. He has particular expertise in Canadian and international mining, energy, and oil and gas transactions, including joint venture, property acquisition and royalty transactions.

"I am very happy to be joining a firm that is so focused on client service," said Rob. "My clients and I have found a great new home at WeirFoulds, and I look forward to working with the respected and dynamic team they have assembled."

Rob can be reached at rebberschlag@weirfoulds.com, 416.947.5076, and on LinkedIn.
