Micah is a Partner in the firm's Municipal, Development and Land Use Planning Practice Group. His practice is focused on expropriation and planning law.

Micah acts for both municipal authorities and expropriated landowners throughout Ontario. He has represented clients before the Ontario Land Tribunal, the Ontario Superior Court, several Administrative Boards and Tribunals, and private arbitrators.

Prior to joining WeirFoulds, Micah worked as an associate at a boutique firm focusing primarily on expropriation law. Before that, Micah worked as a commercial litigator at a full-service firm. Prior to joining private practice, Micah articulated with the Ontario Ministry of the Attorney General in the Civil Remedies for Illicit Activities Office.

Micah is involved in professional associations in the area of land acquisition. Micah has served on committees and regularly writes and makes presentations for these groups.
