Commercial Litigation

Cassie is an associate in the Construction Practice Group at WeirFoulds.

With a practice encompassing all areas of construction law, Cassie represents a variety of clients, including developers, suppliers, consultants, and public institutions. She has experience drafting and negotiating contracts, and preparing pleadings on issues such as liens, breach of contract, and professional negligence.

Prior to joining WeirFoulds, Cassie summered and articulated with the firm.

Cassie is extremely client-focused and always aims to provide timely and effective service.

In her spare time, Cassie enjoys playing volleyball, staying active, and searching for the perfect cup of coffee.
