Mark Dzurman is an Associate in the Construction Practice Group at WeirFoulds LLP.

Mark's practice encompasses all areas of construction law. He represents clients ranging from developers, suppliers and consultants to public institutions.

Prior to joining WeirFoulds, Mark was an associate at a boutique law firm based in Toronto, where he worked with the firm's litigation, corporate and commercial, and employment law groups.

Mark earned his J.D. from the University of Toronto's Faculty of Law. During his time as a law student, he volunteered his time as a caseworker with Pro Bono Students Canada.

When he's not helping WeirFoulds' clients, Mark is an avid golfer, a diehard fan of the Toronto Maple Leafs, and a foodie who enjoys trying new restaurants throughout the GTA.
