Sabina Kwiecien is a law clerk in the Securities Practice Group at WeirFoulds LLP.

Before joining WeirFoulds, Sabina supported a Toronto-based law firm's Securities team by coordinating private placement financings, prospectus and continuous disclosure filings, drafting and organizing documents for filing purposes, and liaising with security regulatory authorities, among other responsibilities.

Prior to this, Sabina worked as a securities law clerk at full service law firm with a presence in Toronto, Calgary and Vancouver. In this role, she managed compliance issues for public companies with various commissions, prepared and submitted CUSIP/ISIN applications and eligibility applications with CDS, and drafted applicable documentation with respect to IPOs and short form prospectus offerings.
