Roopa Mann is the Professional Development Manager at WeirFoulds LLP.

Roopa works closely with the Director of Legal Talent to manage the firm's articling and summer student programs, including student recruitment, engagement, and professional development.

Prior to joining WeirFoulds, Roopa was counsel at the Crown Law Office – Civil, the central civil litigation and advisory office for the Government of Ontario. In her legal practice, Roopa acted on behalf of government ministries and employees at all levels of court. She also focused on the mentorship of students and junior counsel, including acting as co-lead of the office's Student Committee.

Roopa graduated with her Juris Doctor from the Queen's University Faculty of Law and with a Bachelor of Arts in International Relations from the University of British Columbia.
