Rob Eberschlag is a Partner at WeirFoulds LLP with a practice focused on Corporate law, Securities law, M&A and Corporate Governance.

He advises corporations, investment banks, investors, and entrepreneurs in corporate finance, mergers and acquisitions, stock exchange listings, corporate governance, private equity, venture capital and securities law matters.

Rob enjoys working with emerging growth companies and the people who invest in them. He guides companies through their capital formation stages and going public transactions, advising on initial public offerings, follow-on public offerings, PIPE, and private financings, Reverse Take-Overs, de-SPAC transactions, and Qualifying Transactions. Rob has been involved with several Capital Pool Companies.

Rob has helped list many companies on stock exchanges, established several investment funds, executed complex public company M&A transactions, and negotiated numerous acquisition, joint venture, and royalty transactions. He also advises foreign investors with respect to direct investments in Canadian public companies. His sector experience includes transactions involving life sciences, mining, renewable energy, cleantech, technology, and oil/gas.

Rob is a past member of the board of directors of the Private Capital Markets Association and of the investment committee of The Atmospheric Fund.
